

IGEL Smart Series
easy to manage, cleverly used

The most important features of the IGEL Smart series are flexibility, reliability and cost-efficiency. The IGEL Smart clients are equipped with a broad range of the latest network and communication protocols and offer exceptional utilization flexibility. Regardless of whether you decide to go for a Smart with Windows CE or IGEL Embedded Flash Linux, the IGEL Clever Client architecture will satisfy your specific requirements quickly and easily.

Advantages:

- Use the three models of the Smart series for maximum efficiency in any system world, from Citrix, Windows and Linux to host applications
- Integrate your external branch offices into your IT system through VPN
- Take advantage, free of charge, of easy and secure firmware updates, which are supported by the fail- save mechanisms of IGEL

Main features:

- 200 MHz CPU
- 32 MB Compact Flash memory
- IGEL remote management suite for easy remote administration
- Extensive software support for USB-WLAN, DSL and VPN
- Multiple additional functions, such as multi-session / host functionality, print server, VPN to expand the performance spectrum

- Latest Citrix ICA and RDP Linux and CE clients, LX and CE version only
- Terminal emulation suite for various terminals: IBM 3270, 5250, Wyse Tandem, HP, SNI, DG, ANSI/ASCII, 132-Legacy only
- Integrated authentication protocol Kerberos for secure access to host applications, 132-Legacy only

The series includes the following models:

- IGEL-132 LX Smart
- IGEL-132 CE Smart
- IGEL-132 Legacy

The resistant metal casing is available in black, PC-grey or bicolor silver-grey metallic.